Registration Count Crosses 500 ... Congressional Meeting Talking Points, Tablet Presentation Now Available ... Sen. Tester Added as LTS Speaker!

With the LTS less than a week away, more than 500 NAPS leaders and branch delegates are preparing to arrive in Washington this weekend for the annual NAPS legislative conference, which begins on Sunday, March 6 at the Crystal Gateway Marriott Hotel, in Arlington, Virginia. The event promises to be another great event for postal supervisors, postmasters and managers to learn about and contribute to postal policy in the Nation's capital.

Congressional Meeting Talking Points and Tablet Presentation

After a day of LTS legislative training on Monday, NAPS delegates will head to Congressional Hill on Tuesday, March 7, to educate Congressional offices about NAPS' legislative priorities, including action on the exigency surcharge, which expires April 10.

The NAPS Issue Brief, which explains NAPS' position on the issues, is here.

NAPS delegates will seek House and Senate support for these bills.

The suggested Talking Points and other info for use by NAPS delegates in meetings with Congressional offices, are here.

A 9-slide powerpoint presentation, which provides visuals that match the Talking Points and can be downloaded to your iPad or tablet device for use in the Congressional meeting, is here.

Other LTS information, including the Program Agenda, may be found on the LTS webpage.

Be sure to bring along your iPad or tablet device and smart phone to the LTS for use during LTS training and meetings on Capitol Hill.

A Dynamic LTS Speaker Lineup

NAPS is delighted that Sen. Jon Tester \(D-MT\), a member of the Senate postal oversight committee and a great friend of NAPS, has accepted NAPS' invitation to speak at the LTS.

Tester and his Western state colleague, Sen. Heidi Heitkamp \(D-ND\), will keynote the Monday afternoon plenary session.

Other LTS speakers will include:

- Postal Regulatory Vice Chairman Nanci Langley
- Deputy Postmaster General Ronald Stroman
- Acting USPS Inspector General Tammy Whitcomb
- NARFE Legislative Director Jessica Klement
